

Study NSW

Part of the New South Wales Government

Connect with Study NSW

The NSW Government through Study NSW is dedicated to supporting the international education sector and enriching the experience of international students. Our team coordinates a wide range of free initiatives to help you with living, studying and working in NSW.

Access international student support and engagement programs

Connect with employers and employment opportunities from NSW Jobs Connect for International Students

Enhance your employability skills by participating in industry experience programs or through volunteering

Access free legal advice from the NSW International Student Legal Service

Find out about our NSW International Education Awards

Visit our website study.nsw.gov.au to find out more and keep in touch

Subscribe to our mailing list for regular news, events and opportunities study.nsw.gov.au/subscribe

Scan to connect

Connect with Study NSW to learn more about opportunities, news and updates.

Let's get social #StudyNSW      